All students listed are to be registered for participation in the SCDBA All-District Auditions. The students all meet eligibility requirements as stated in the constitution of the NCBA South Central District and NCMEA. The students are enrolled in a concert band class that receives one unit of credit at this school and appear on the school's daily attendance roster.

The band director(s) at each school, who has a student register to participate, will be required to judge per our normal procedures.
